Dear Mr. Wynne:

Thank you for your kind invitation to address the Rotary Club of Tampa at one of your Tuesday luncheon meetings. Due to the transition period of moving from one agency to another, I am unable to make a commitment at this time. Please give your members my regards and I hope you have a successful season.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ William H. Webster

RE: Speaking Invitation
Rotary Club of Tampa
Tampa, Florida
Convenient Tuesday, 12:00 noon

Vice President of the Tampa Rotary Club, O. Boyd Wynne, has invited you to speak to the Rotary Club at one of their luncheon meetings on any convenient Tuesday whenever you are in the area. You could expect an audience of approximately 300 business and professional men. According to Mr. Wynne, the Tampa Rotary Club has a reputation as an important platform in the State of Florida.

I recommend that you decline this invitation. As Director of Central Intelligence, I do not believe that this warrants your time. If you agree, I have attached a letter of regret to Mr. Wynne for your signature.

Re: Rotary Club of Tampa
Presentation

Dear Judge Webster:

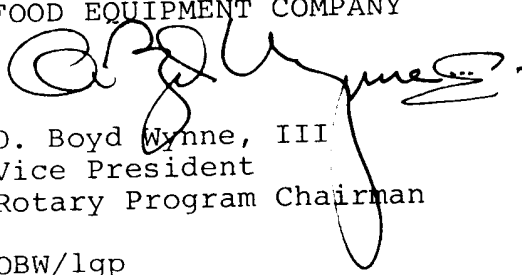

The Rotary Club of Tampa would like to extend an invitation to you to speak to our club on the Tuesday of your choice. Our club enjoys the reputation of having one of the most desirable platform to speak from in Florida.

Tampa Rotary is composed of approximately 300 members representing the business educational, professional and governmental communities in the Tampa area. It would be our pleasure having you as one of our guest speakers. If you have an opportunity to travel to Florida, please include Tampa and Tampa Rotary in your schedule. We meet at 12:00 P.M. each Tuesday at the downtown Days Inn.

Our membership and our community would enjoy hearing what's new, what's good and what's changing in the Central Intelligence Agency. Your response would be appreciated.

Very truly yours
